

Select Introduces Breakthrough Vape Technology with Cliq by Select

New High-Tech Hardware System to Launch in 16 States by Year End

WAKEFIELD, Mass., Sept 22, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Curaleaf Holdings, Inc. (CSE: CURA) (OTCQX: CURLF) ("Curaleaf" or the "Company"), a leading U.S. provider of consumer products in cannabis, today announced the release of Cliq by Select, a breakthrough hardware system from its Select brand designed to significantly upgrade the consumer's vaping experience. Cliq is the culmination of years of research and development to create the perfect marriage of Select's award-winning cannabis oil with a new, intelligently designed delivery system. This new hardware will debut at Hall of Flowers today and launch in Oregon, California and Arizona next week. The hardware will then continue to roll-out nationwide in states such as Massachusetts, Colorado, Florida, Maryland, Michigan, Nevada, New York, Connecticut, Maine, Utah, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

With a proprietary gravity-fed pod and ultra-tough stainless steel encasing combined with its premium design and convenient USB-C charging port, Cliq comfortably brings the best of Select's high-quality oil and innovative hardware into the hands of cannabis consumers. The contoured pod design ensures customers get every last drop of premium Elite cannabis oil, while the strong magnetic pod and device connection ensures a secure fit that closes with a signature "click" sound. Cliq by Select utilizes an "auto draw" feature (inhalation activates the device), and allows for variable battery voltage, creating a bespoke potency experience to match user preferences at any moment. Cliq pods will be available in sativa, hybrid and indica varieties in 0.5g and 1.0g sizes, depending on individual state regulations.

"Cliq is perfect for consumers seeking a high-end hardware vape system that's easy-to-use, is as comfortable as it is durable, and uses premium oil from a trusted brand known for its quality and safety standards. As with every product and service we launch at Curaleaf, we are fully committed to elevating the cannabis experience of each and every kind of cannabis consumer with brands people love," said Joe Bayern, CEO of Curaleaf.

"This is more than just a stylish piece of hardware. Cliq has been years in the making, and is a real testament to the talent and dedication of the Select team, who have cut no corners in elevating what is possible with a better consumer experience. We stressed over even the smallest features and internal mechanics to make Cliq a user's favorite way to vape," said Cameron Forni, founder of Select.

The Select brand is currently available in 17 states including Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Maryland, New York, Nevada, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Utah, and most recently New Jersey. Cliq by Select will sit alongside premium vape offerings including Select Elite Live, Select Fresh, and Select Essentials.
