

Curaleaf Opens Two New Florida Dispensaries in Tampa Bay and Largo

Company now has 44 dispensaries in Florida and 123 nationwide

WAKEFIELD, Mass., Jan. 19, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Curaleaf Holdings, Inc. (CSE: CURA / OTCQX: CURLF) ("Curaleaf" or the "Company"), a leading international provider of consumer products in cannabis, today announced plans to open two new dispensaries in Florida by the end of this month. The expansion will increase the Company's retail footprint to 44 dispensaries statewide and 123 across the country.

Curaleaf Tampa Bay Mabry, located at 13755 North Dale Mabry Highway, opened on January 15th and Curaleaf Largo, located at 10289 Ulmerton Road, is expected to open later this month, subject to final regulatory approvals. In December, Curaleaf added four additional dispensaries in Stuart, Lady Lake, Wesley Chapel and Miami to continue to expand access to the company's quality products and services.

Florida has evolved into one of the largest and fastest growing medical markets in the country. Curaleaf has quickly expanded its retail presence and cultivation footprint and introduced more innovative products, including Select Squeeze, Select Bites, Select Nano Bites, and its breakthrough vape hardware Cliq by Select, which features a proprietary gravity-fed pod and variable battery voltage settings, allowing patients to customize cannabis consumption experiences to their individual preferences. The company's Florida growth strategy resulted in significant gains last year, with Curaleaf doubling its market share to fifteen percent in the state.

"We are excited to kick off this year continuing our momentum of expansion and growth in Florida," said Matt Darin, President of Curaleaf. "Throughout this year our patients can expect to see Curaleaf continue to lead the Florida market with new innovative products and convenient new locations."
