

Curaleaf Introduces Endless Coast Cannabis-Infused Seltzers in Massachusetts

Company's first beverage offering is formulated with botanical extracts and fast-acting nanotechnology

WAKEFIELD, Mass., May 26, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Curaleaf Holdings, Inc. (CSE: CURA / OTCQX: CURLF) ("Curaleaf" or the "Company"), a leading international provider of consumer products in cannabis, announced the launch of Endless Coast Cannabis-Infused Seltzers, a highly sociable line of low-calorie, low-sugar and low-carb beverages which will be available tomorrow at Curaleaf dispensaries in Massachusetts.

Just in time for the summer beverage season, Endless Coast delivers balanced cannabinoid ratios in four refreshing botanical flavors featuring naturally-derived fruit extracts and essences. Each seltzer utilizes finely-tuned nanotechnology to accelerate the onset of calming effects and match the speed of your typical social beverage. By turning cannabis oil into tiny water-soluble molecules, the THC compounds are more efficiently absorbed into the bloodstream with effects felt in as little as 15-30 minutes. Endless Coast is available in four micro-dosed options to provide consumers with a consistent and controlled experience:

- Lemon Ginger: Infused with 2.5mg THC; naturally-derived lemon and ginger extracts.
- Orange Mango Jalapeño: Infused with 5mg THC; naturally-derived orange mango jalapeño extracts.
- Lime: Infused with 5mg THC; naturally-derived lime essence.
- Grapefruit & Botanicals: Infused with 2.5mg THC and 2.5mg CBD; naturally-derived grapefruit and botanical extracts.

"People love their seltzer and we're thrilled to bring Endless Coast, another innovative product featuring nanotechnology and great flavor, to the market, beginning in Massachusetts," said Matt Darin, CEO of Curaleaf. "Endless Coast not only speaks to the rising demand for cannabis-infused beverages, but also reimagines how everyday consumers and in particular the 'canna curious' can incorporate cannabis into their lives."

According to U.S. data from Headset, cannabis beverage market share has increased by more than 20% in the last two years. Endless Coast is uniquely positioned within the high-growth product category in one of the most mature adult-use markets on the East Coast.

Endless Coast will be available at dispensaries across Massachusetts as well as Curaleaf's four locations in Oxford, Ware, Hanover and Provincetown. For more information on product availability, please visit www.endlesscoastseltzer.com.
